

Columbus, OH

33rd Annual MAMCOANA Convention

Hilton Columbus/Polaris
July 13-16, 2017

Welcome to Columbus!

A city is a city, is a city, is a city. A Mamciite is a Mamciite, is a Mamciite. While I, as the host this year, as well as one who calls Columbus my home, love Columbus; most Maulanians will find it attractive simply as the venue and stirring pot for MAMCOAANA 2017. Relive your college memories, friendships; and catch up on years of experiences.

Columbus has one of the largest universities of USA - The Ohio State University. The Muirfield Golf Course in the Dublin district of Columbus holds the Men's PGA memorial tournament each year. Columbus Zoo and Zoombezi Waterpark are worth checking out in the summer with your kids. Columbus is also home to large corporates like Cardinal Health, JP Morgan Chase and Honda. If you are interested in learning about this wonderful city of mine then feel free to check out www.experiencecolumbus.com

Attend CME lectures MAMC style! Your own colleagues are the speakers; the content is very high quality but there is this LT flavor to it that is irresistible - smart (and sometimes snide!) remarks, 'khusphus' inside jokes that you understand only because you are from MAMC, frantic whatsapp photos of people speaking ... and sleeping (....so what's new...) through 'class'it's all there. We know how to study and have fun at the same time ☺

- CME Chair Bharti Khurana MD, from the 1989 entry batch
- Earn CME credits (more details to follow in the CME brochure)
- Registration fee only $100.00 for both days, (paid separately from the conference registration)
